Why Donate or Recycle Electronics?

This question is answered by epa.gov: Electronic products are made from valuable resources and materials, including metals, plastics, and glass, all of which require energy to mine and manufacture. Donating or recycling consumer electronics conserves our natural resources and avoids air and water pollution, as well as greenhouse gas emissions that are caused by manufacturing virgin materials.

For information on what to do before donating or recycling your used electronics – and where to donate or recycle – visit <https://www.epa.gov/recycle/electronics-donation-and-recycling>.

Happy Holidays from ChemStation

During the Holiday Season more than ever, our thoughts turn gratefully to all of our customers who have made ChemStation's progress possible.

We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you and to wish you the very best for the New Year!

Stiving for success without hard work is like trying to harvest where you haven't planted.
