

Fridays are for Food Safety!

At ChemStation, we take food safety seriously. That's why we have assembled the Eagle Team, our team of technical experts. Each Friday we will be showcasing a member of our Eagle Team on social media. Look for these upcoming posts to better understand the depths of our talented team.

Speaking of Fridays, this Friday, October 6 is the deadline to register for the ChemStation Institute: Food Safety & Sanitation Summit, which takes place October 25-27, 2023 at the Loews Atlanta Hotel. This summit is designed to educate food processing manufacturers, quality assurance and sanitation personnel about the ever changing world of food safety and sanitation. The conference will include hands on workshops led by industry leaders.

Registration includes meals, all sessions and all scheduled activities associated with CSI 2023. Lodging, flight and transportation fees are not included. Please contact your local ChemStation Representative for details. Don't miss out! Register here by Friday, October 6.

Four Ways to Stay Safe Online

Since 2004, the President of the United States and Congress have declared the month of October to be Cybersecurity Awareness Month, a dedicated month for the public and private sectors to work together to raise awareness about the importance of cybersecurity.

There are all kinds of ways to stay safe and secure online, but even just practicing these cybersecurity basics can make a huge difference:

- Use Strong Passwords and a Password Manager
- Turn on Multifactor Authentication
- Recognize and Report Phishing
- Update Your Software
