

QUESTION #1

When employees handle hazardous chemicals, employees should always wear which of the following?

- a) Rubber gloves
- b) Neoprene apron
- c) Face/Eye protection
- d) All of the above

QUESTION #2

If a chemical accident occurs where your body (skin, hair, or eyes) or your clothing comes in contact with any of the cleaning products, which should you do first?

- a) Notify the supervisor.
- b) Rinse the affected area for fifteen minutes with cold water from the eye wash station.
- c) Remove or replace any clothing that gets wet by a chemical.
- d) Consult the SDS.

QUESTION #3

True or False – Supervisors should NOT keep a detailed record of all chemical safety violations and accidents.

- a) True
- b) False

QUESTION #4

You should use extra caution when using which of these chemicals?

- a) Caustic Soda/Caustic Potash
- b) Phosphoric Acid and Nitric Acid
- c) Chlorine
- d) All of the above

QUESTION #5

True or False – Never use chlorine or chlorinated products near or with acid products.

- a) True
- b) False

